

Damping & Resonance

Damping = a reduction in the amplitude of a wave. See diagram in text.

Two causes of damping: 1) energy absorption (ie: friction in the system) example: child on swing

2) negative interference example: noise cancelling earphones

Resonant frequency = frequency at which a medium vibrates most easily.