Communication -Able to communicate to audience  /5	-communicates with a limited sense of audience	-communicates with sense of audience but at times too 'scientific'.	- communicates with a considerable sense of audience / purpose	-communicates with a strong sense of audience / purpose throughout.
Communication -proper spelling & grammar including paragraphing (see suggested order) /5	-frequent spelling / grammar errors	-some spelling / grammar errors	- effective use of spelling / grammar with a few errors	- highly effective use of spelling / grammar with very few or no errors.

 Communicates to audience → this means your work sounds and reads like a letter to a cousin. It should NOT sound like a scientific research assignment, although, your relevant facts found be research will be woven into the letter. The more you image you are truly writing to a family member and offering educated advice, the more successful you will be at 'communicating to audience'.

Note: Your work will not be accepted unless it is accompanied by your Bibliography.
